DGE RECOMMENDATION:

☒ GRANT

☐ DENY

☐ NO POSITION

Dear Acting Director Rebuck:

By letter to the Division of Gaming Enforcement (Division) dated March 10, 2011, Brunn Consulting Group, Inc., d/b/a Game Tec Labs, Inc. (applicant), has requested permission to withdraw its application for licensure as a casino service industry enterprise pursuant to N.J.S.A. 5:12-92a. According to Frederick A. Brunn, CFO, the applicant does not currently have a product to supply to the New Jersey gaming industry.

Prior to receipt of this withdrawal request, the Division undertook the requisite investigation of this applicant. The results of the investigation, although incomplete, reflect no substantive derogatory information.

The Division has reviewed this request and, in light of the foregoing, recommends that the applicant be permitted to withdraw its casino service industry enterprise licensure application provided that the application fees will not be refunded and subject to the one-year bar to re-application pursuant to N.J.A.C. 13:69A-8.6(a). This position is without prejudice to any position the Division may take regarding any subsequent application which may be made by Brunn Consulting Group, Inc., d/b/a Game Tec Labs, Inc.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
